

with Andrew Carey
business@limerickpost.ie

EVENT

Are you export ready?

THE business community in Limerick is getting a one-off opportunity to hear the successful story of The Kirby Group, a privately owned Irish company who provide engineering and construction services to the most renowned multinational corporations in the UK, Continental European and Nordic markets.

As part of the one off event, Kirby Group marketing manager Kieley McKenzie will address the gathered audience about the company's journey to trading internationally and the various challenges that come with trying to win customers overseas.

Enterprise Ireland, Limerick Local Enterprise Office and

The Irish Exporters Association will provide an overview of supports available to new and early stage exporters both in the region and nationally.

AIB, DHL, Euler Hermes, APB Food Group and PWC will also be in attendance at the event to advise participants on practical supports available for new and early stage exporters.

There is no charge to attend the event hosted at the Radisson BLU Hotel Limerick on June 25 next with registration from 9am.

See www.enterprise-ireland.com for more.

Employees from Regeneron have spent the past two weeks painting, upgrading the existing electrical infrastructure and general clean up of the historical Shannon Rowing Club in Limerick.

Pictured at the Shannon Rowing club are, from left: Michelle Mc Donagh, captain, Shannon Rowing Club; Niall O'Leary, executive director – site head, Regeneron Pharmaceuticals, Limerick; Justin Ryan, president of Shannon Rowing Club; Dan Van Plew, senior vice president, Regeneron Pharmaceuticals and John Gleeson, Shannon Rowing Club member

Photograph: Sean Curtin/ Fusionshooters