
Morning business news with Conor Brophy

Monday 30 May 2016

MORNING BRIEFS

 Half of Irish exporters say the fluctuating value of sterling since the start of the year has had a negative impact on their business. The Irish Exporters Association's quarterly Export Eye, involving a survey of its members, finds almost two thirds of them reported an increase in exports. Half of them also reported hiring new employees since January.

To listen to the Morning Business News with Conor Brophy please click here and play the 7:15am Business News.