Export Industry Awards 2015 open to companies of all sizes

The Export Industry Awards 2015 will recognise the work of all export-industry sectors, acknowledging emerging exporters, established indigenous exporters of manufactured goods and services, and the biggest multinational exporters.

The awards will be open to companies trading successfully in tough European markets, as well as companies trading in high-growth markets. Entrants may range from small start-up companies to large international corporations depending on the category.

There are 12 categories and companies may enter more than one category.

The overall Exporter of the Year 2015 will be selected from the winners of the individual categories. All the winners will be announced at an event at the Convention Centre in Dublin in November.

At the launch of the awards were Simon McKeever, chief executive of the Irish Exporters Association, and Liam Kavanagh, managing director of The Irish Times.
