

Road Warrior – The business of travel

Friday, April 8

By Joan Scales

Business visa processing facilities available Getting visas for travelling on business can be a frustrating process.

The Irish Exporters Association has a consular department that can help you through the visa minefield.

The consular department will be able to answer questions about visas for both European Union and non-EU passport holders. It will personally lodge visa applications on your behalf here and in other countries.

Visa-processing fees cost from €75. Details from Niamh Devlin, 01-661 2182, irishexporters.ie