
44% of Irish exporters have said that they struggle to find skilled workers

30/05/2016

Half of the companies surveyed by Irish Exporters' Association have taken on new employees in 2016 - but they say it's getting harder to find the right staff.

The research showed that a Britain possibly leaving the EU is a major concern for Irish businesses.

However - 73% of companies are not hedging against a Sterling currency shock if the UK decides to go.

To listen to the Newstalk Breakfast broadcast, 30/05/2016, click here.