

Naas Based 'Irish Dog Foods' Crowned Exporter of the Year

11/19/2017

Author: David Hollywood

Kildare based Irish Dog Foods was crowned the overall Exporter of the Year 2017 at the Export Industry Awards on Friday evening.

The Naas pet food company were the overall winners in the Medium Size Exporter of the Year Award category.

Irish Dog Foods has seen an increase in production capacity by 350% in 18 months owing to an expansion to their Naas premises which now totals over 220,000 square metres.

Speaking at the ceremony, Nicola Byrne, the President of the Irish Exporters Association paid tribute to Irish Dog Foods' impressive innovation and growth strategy.